Monday

READ: Ephesians 3:1-13

REFLECT: Each GodTime this week will focus on a one-word theme from the Scripture passage. Today's word is perspective. Paul had a God-given perspective concerning his suffering. He knew his ministry was for the benefit of others, even if this meant he had to personally suffer. This perspective can give us peace when we're going through hard times.

RESPOND: Does considering God's perspective give you peace? In difficult circumstances, take time and ask God to fill your mind and heart with his perspective.

Tuesday

READ: Ephesians 3:14-21

REFLECT: Today's word is power. Paul's suffering depleted his strength. He knew he needed God's strength to endure. Because he experienced God's power, he wanted all believers to experience it. God's power is available to those who confess their weakness and ask God to fill them with his strength. The good news is he provides us with this power!

RESPOND: Confess to God your weakness and ask him to give you his power. Ask him to give you a fresh vision of who he is.

Wednesday

READ: 1 Peter 4:1-11

REFLECT: This passage highlights the attitude of Christ. This attitude is possible for us when we possess internal peace brought on by God's perspective and power in our lives. It is a result of the discarding of our old nature. When we live from our new nature, we will have a God-centered attitude toward other people and our own suffering.

RESPOND: When is the last time you had a bad attitude? How did it affect your perspective? Ask God to refresh your attitude so that you can live for him and for others.

Thursday

READ: 1 Peter 4:12-19; 2 Corinthians 4:17

REFLECT: Today's word is glory. We can endure our sufferings because of the eternal glory that awaits us in heaven. One moment with Jesus will make all of life's sufferings seem "light." The glory that awaits us will far outweigh the heaviness that suffering has brought us. Therefore, we can live in the present based on our future reality.

RESPOND: How does your day change when you live for the glory to be revealed in the future? Write down a list of priorities you can develop because of this future reality.

Friday

READ: Galatians 6:2

REFLECT: Today's word is carry. One of the best ways to endure suffering is to focus on others instead of yourself. Carrying others' burdens fulfills "the law of Christ" by actively loving others. As Christ carries your burdens, you can carry the burdens of others.

RESPOND: Look for ways to share the burdens of others. Think of those who shared your burdens and thank them if you haven't already done so.
