FROM GRAVES INTO GARDENS FROM CONFUSION TO CALLING

Tyler Ward, Adult Ministries Pastor

John 21:1-14

BIG IDEA: Jesus offers _____ for our _____ by _____ us on our _____.

He does this by...

- _____ us where we are at.
- _____ us to be with him.
- _____ us of the basics.
- _____ us on our mission with him.

So, when we find ourselves in a situation or season of confusion...

What is God saying to you and inviting you to do today?

Write out an I WILL statement...

Monday

READ: John 21:1-14

REFLECT: The disciples' dreams had been crushed. They didn't know what to do next. They found themselves catching fish again. It is in this moment of confusion that Jesus met them. The scene is almost the same as their original call. Jesus intentionally met them at this moment to send the message that their calling remained.

RESPOND: Have you stopped following God's call because of confusion in your life? Is his calling still the same? Spend time seeking God on this and be open to his guidance.

Tuesday

READ: Matthew 11:28-30

REFLECT: Jesus met the disciples where they were in their confusion and clarified their calling and purpose in life. This story can remind us of Jesus' words for all to come to him who are weary and burdened. He has promised to meet us where we are and give us rest.

RESPOND: Where do you go when you feel lost and confused? What stabilizes you? Ask God to reveal this to you and ask him to give you rest and peace.

Wednesday

READ: Isaiah 55:1; John 7:37-38; Revelation 22:17

REFLECT: All three of these passages are invitations from God to those who are parched and need to be satisfied. During our times of confusion God invites us to come and be satisfied with what he offers — himself. He does not leave us in our confusion. He invites and calls us to find relief in him.

RESPOND: What other things and people invite you to find relief and peace? At this moment, how are you responding to God's invitation?

Thursday

READ: Psalm 62:1-8

REFLECT: David was lost, confused, afraid, and discouraged. Yet, he knew that God alone was his rock and source of stability. Therefore, David immediately turned to God during these difficult times. There are many false offers of rest that we receive during our own difficulties. Only God can offer us true rest and peace.

RESPOND: Spend time with God and ask him to saturate your heart and mind with rest. Ask him to show you what it means for him to be your rock and your salvation.

Friday

READ: 1 Corinthians 15:58; Hebrews 10:23

REFLECT: The Bible is full of encouragement to stand firm and persevere during times of trouble. The idea of being steadfast in these passages suggests that we are to continue in our original calling despite obstacles. The good news is that God does not leave us by ourselves when we want to give up. He gives us the strength to carry on and persevere!

RESPOND: Have you ever experienced God's strength to persevere during difficult times? Ask him to give you strength so you can be steadfast in the pursuit of his calling.
