FROM GRAVES INTO GARDENS
FROM ABSENCE TO PRESENCE

Brad Bullock, Student Ministries Pastor

Luke 24:13-49

Reasons we wrestle with a sense of God's absence...

1. A _____ world

2. A _____ God

Truths we hold on to...

God's silence is not _____

God's presence is not merely a _____

God's presence comes through _____

...enters when we _____

...fills when we _____

...brings the _____

...gives _____, _____, _____,

_____ (and _____!)

Monday

READ: Luke 24:13-49

REFLECT: If God feels absent, it may be that we are blinded by something. It might be our lack of faith, our circumstances, or our sin. Rather than questioning God's presence, we need to ask him to open our eyes. Then we need to trust him to answer our prayers and be aware of how he will reveal himself.

RESPOND: Are you aware of God's presence in your life right now? Spend time asking him to reveal his presence to you. Be open to new ways he may reveal himself.

Tuesday

READ: Isaiah 35

REFLECT: Isaiah 34 describes the judgment God would bring upon the nations. Those who experienced this judgment must have doubted God's presence. But in Isaiah 35 God shows up through restoration and renewal. Because of sin in our lives, there may be times when God seems absent. But if we repent, we can experience renewal and his presence.

RESPOND: Ask God to reveal to you any sin that is hindering you from experiencing his presence. Repent of those sins and ask God for his grace to experience his presence again.

Wednesday

READ: Luke 2:41-52

REFLECT: When Mary and Joseph confronted Jesus for making them feel anxious over his absence, he simply said he "had to be in my Father's house" (v. 49). Jesus had to be near his Father and doing his will. This story reminds us that if we want to find Jesus then we must first align ourselves with God's will.

RESPOND: Ask God to reveal whether or not you are aligned with his will. Instead of asking him to draw near to you, look for ways you can draw near to him by following his will.

Thursday

READ: Psalm 139:7-12; Hebrews 13:8

REFLECT: David admits there is nowhere he can escape from God. David knew from his own experience that God is always present and never absent. In the same way, we can trust in God's continuing presence based on our own experience. He never changes; he is always near to us.

RESPOND: How has God displayed his presence to you in the past? How can God's faithfulness in the past increase your faith in his continued presence in your life?

Friday

READ: Genesis 3:8; Revelation 21:1-5

REFLECT: From the beginning of creation to the beginning of eternity, God declares his presence. He desires to be near. Fortunately, there will be a day when nothing will hinder us from experiencing his presence. The reality of this day can help us persevere.

RESPOND: Write down some questions you've always wanted God to answer. Which of these questions do you think will no longer be important when you see him face to face?
