HEART MATTERS
FROM RESTLESSNESS TO CONTENTMENT

Ron Williams, Senior Pastor

Mark 12:29-31; Philippians 4:10-20

“Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’ The second is this: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no commandment greater than these.” – Mark 12:30-31

BIG IDEA: The _____ of my heart is determined by the _____ of my _____.

1. I know my focus is off when I begin to _____ all I have been _____ to what others _____.
2. I know my focus is clear when I _____ to be _____ with all I have been given. – Philippians 4:10-20
 - A. Contentment focuses me on all I have been _____ in Christ Jesus. – Philippians 4:10-11
 - B. Contentment keeps me _____ on the _____ of Christ in me. – Philippians 4:12-13
 - C. Contentment frees me to be _____ to others. – Philippians 4:14-20
 - D. Contentment allows me to live through an _____.

Monday

READ: Proverbs 3:5-6; Matthew 6:19-21; Matthew 22:37-39; Proverbs 4:23

REFLECT: The course of our souls is determined by who/what we place on the throne of our hearts. When we place our sin nature on this throne, our attitudes, thoughts, and actions will be sin. When we place God on this throne, he is able to use our new nature to glorify him.

RESPOND: Who/what sits on the throne of your heart? How can you tell? What do you need to do to ensure you place God on the throne of your heart daily?

Tuesday

READ: James 4:1-3

REFLECT: Coveting seduces our hearts and deceives us into thinking we are missing out on something. As a result, we obsess over what we don't have instead of experiencing a deep sense of joy and satisfaction with what we've been given. This passage reveals that when we covet, our relationships can be severed, especially our relationships with God.

RESPOND: Have relationships in your life been negatively impacted by your lack of contentment? If so, what can you do to restore those relationships?

Wednesday

READ: Philippians 4:12-13

REFLECT: Contentment goes against the grain of what is natural for us, so we have to be intentional in combating covetousness and seeking contentment. When we are intentional, we will see contentment frees us up to be truly satisfied in God alone.

RESPOND: How are you being intentional in combating covetousness in your heart? How are you intentionally seeking contentment?

Thursday

READ: Job 1:21; 1 Timothy 6:7

REFLECT: Viewing our lives with an eternal perspective is the key to contentment. These passages remind us that we will depart this world in the same way we entered — with nothing in our possession. Therefore, we must focus on what will only last in eternity.

RESPOND: Do you spend time chasing what you will not take with you to heaven? How can you intentionally invest in what will last for all eternity?

Friday

READ: 1 Timothy 6:17-19

REFLECT: Generosity is the antidote to covetousness and the key to contentment. God's Word commands those who have wealth and possessions to hold them loosely rather than tightly. When we hold them loosely in our hearts, the easier it will be to give them away.

RESPOND: What emotions do you feel when you are not content? Do these emotions lead to attitudes, thoughts, and actions that do not glorify God and serve others? Do they cause you to be generous?
