BIBLE TIME

I can pray to Jesus Anywhere

Acts 16:16-40

Paul and Silas traveled together and told people about Jesus. But there were some people who did not like Paul and Silas. So they put Paul and Silas in jail. While Paul and Silas were in jail, they prayed to Jesus.

Suddenly there was an earthquake, and their chains came loose. The guard ran to see if Paul and Silas were still in jail. They were still there, and they told the guard about Jesus. The guard and his family chose to follow Jesus. The next day, Paul and Silas were let out of jail.

You can read this story with your child in Acts 16:16-40 in a Children's Bible
