

Pastor Ron Williams

"Now after John had been taken into custody, Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of God, and saying, 'The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the gospel.' As He was going along by the Sea of Galilee, He saw Simon and Andrew, the brother of Simon, casting a net in the sea; for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow Me, and I will make you become fishers of men." Immediately they left their nets and followed Him. Going on a little farther, He saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who were also in the boat mending the nets. Immediately He called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired servants and went away to follow Him." – Mark 4:14-20

BIG IDEA: Jesus calls _____ people to reach _____ at a _____.

1. We are called to tell _____. – vs. 14-15
2. We are called to _____ about the spiritual lives of _____ people.
3. We are called to reach one by _____ one.
4. We are called to focus on _____ at a _____.

Monday

READ: Mark 1:14-20

REFLECT: Where Simon Peter, Andrew, James, and John saw themselves as only fishing for fish, Jesus saw them as men who would help Him catch something far more eternal — the souls of mankind. Jesus' invitation to follow Him is the same to you today. Jesus sees something you may not see in yourself. He wants you to follow Him into this calling.

RESPOND: What is holding you back from being a fisher of people? Ask God to reveal any hindrances to you and spend time asking God for strength to overcome them.

Tuesday

READ: Romans 13:8-10

REFLECT: God's priorities are His glory and His love for people. Shouldn't yours be the same? As God draws near to you, you can also move toward others. Moving toward others begins with praying for them. This will lead to caring for them as God develops your heart for them. Then your actions will be an outflow of this heart.

RESPOND: Spend time asking God to give you a heart for people's spiritual lives. Pray that those you know will grow closer to God today.

Wednesday

READ: Matthew 25:35-40; 1 Peter 4:9

REFLECT: Showing hospitality to others not only demonstrates love toward them; it also expresses your love for God. As Jesus was intentional in calling His disciples to follow Him, you can also be intentional in loving others and reaching out to that one person.

RESPOND: Has God asked you to reach out to one particular person? Have you done so? Why or why not? What are your next steps?

Thursday

READ: Luke 9:57-62

REFLECT: The disciples had to leave their nets behind when they decided to follow Jesus because God was calling them to move forward to reach others. You may not be able to follow Jesus and reach others if you are still clinging onto something that is holding you back. It's time to let go of who you were and become someone who reaches people!

RESPOND: What is that one thing (or things) holding you back from living out your calling to reach others?

Friday

READ: Philippians 2:3-4

REFLECT: Reaching out to others is a selfless act that requires humility. Doing so requires focusing on them rather than what is convenient for you. This may not be easy and natural for you to do, but it is necessary if you are to live out your calling to reach others. Thankfully, God gives you the strength that is necessary to fulfill this calling.

RESPOND: Continue to pray "God, use me to reach one." Ask Him to continually open your eyes for opportunities to reach this one.

We'll hear encouraging stories from others who have experienced victory in the midst of hard times.
