Everything we do is about the mission.

Jesus, in His own words, declared He came so that we might have a full life in Him. We are called to be a church with that same mission — to shine brightly the light of hope and healing and fullness of life found only in Jesus Christ.

The Hecht family welcomed Elizabeth "Lizzy" into their family in the summer of 2022. They adopted her from Bulgaria. Her name means, "God is my oath." The family patiently awaited God's perfect timing to bring Lizzy into their family. They began their adoption journey four years before they were matched with her. When asked for their story to be shared the family stated, "We are so appreciative of the support from True Vine and Pathway! It takes a village and you all are part of our village that helped get her home!"
