Monday

READ: John 14:1-6

REFLECT: Jesus’ words in verse 6 imply that every other religion does not lead to salvation. Jesus is saying that if people don’t follow Him, they will not spend eternity in heaven. However, if we tell people this, we can come across as arrogant or insensitive. That’s why we need compassion, wisdom, and to live out our faith, not just speak it.

RESPOND: How can you live so that nonbelievers are attracted to the gospel? Look for another believer who models this well and seek out their wisdom.

Tuesday

READ: John 13:34-35

REFLECT: Our testimony comes not only from our words but also from the way we live. One of the ways we can live out our testimony is by how we love other Christians. Nonbelievers will see how we treat our spiritual family and be attracted to this kind of love. In short, others will know we are Christians by our love!

RESPOND: Is there one person that you need to show sacrificial love toward? How can you demonstrate this kind of love to them?

Wednesday

READ: 1 Peter 2:12

REFLECT: It is not only our good deeds that attract nonbelievers but also the reason behind our good deeds. We must seek to do good deeds from a selfless heart. Selfish love is not attractive. It does good deeds for our benefit. Selfless love, while challenging, does good deeds for others’ benefit.

RESPOND: Ask God to transform your heart in such a way that allows you to love others and do good deeds from a selfless heart.

Thursday

READ: 1 Peter 3:15

REFLECT: In this verse, Peter is directing believers to provide a simple explanation of the hope they have. If someone notices that your life is different and asks you why, you can tell them that Jesus has transformed your life and given you a new perspective on life.

RESPOND: Ask another believer for ideas on how you can share the reason for the hope you have. Pray for opportunities to share this hope with nonbelievers.

Friday

READ: 2 Peter 3:9

REFLECT: God desires as many people as possible to follow Him. This is why He hasn’t returned yet. Our love for others and desire for Jesus’ return can motivate us to share our faith and live out our testimony in a such way that is attractive to others without compromising the gospel.

RESPOND: Ask God to give you a heart that takes advantage of opportunities to share your faith. Then look for and act on the opportunities He gives you.
