Pastor Ron Williams

All Scripture is God-breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the servant of God[a] may be thoroughly equipped for every good work. — 2 Timothy 3:16-17

BIG IDEA: To live out of your identity in Christ, you must declutter your _____ and create _____ to _____ from Him through His _____

1. Clear the clutter to hear who the loudest voice in your life _____ be.

2. God's _____ is God's _____ to you.

- Teaches what is _____

- Reveals our _____ within

- Corrects our _____

- Trains us how live _____

3. God's Word equips us for _____ work.

4. The only way to _____ is to make time to _____.

Monday

READ: Matthew 11:28-30

REFLECT: The pursuit of an uncluttered life begins with a confession: that our lives are "cluttered" and we are exhausted. When we give Him our burdens and anxieties, He gives us rest and peace. Further, when we unclutter our lives of busyness, worry, and sin, we can focus on the transforming power of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

RESPOND: Spend time writing down your burdens. Say them out loud and tell God, "I give you _____." Praise Him for taking your burdens and replacing them with His peace.

Tuesday

READ: Matthew 13:1-23

REFLECT: Do you have a neighbor who doesn't take care of their yard? Is it cluttered and overgrown? If we aren't careful, we can have a cluttered heart. The parable of the Sower and the Seed shows us that well-cultivated soil — which takes time, attention, and care — will grow a life of depth and produce an identity found in Jesus.

RESPOND: Ask God to reveal where your life is cluttered. What steps can you take to begin uncluttering your life?

Wednesday

READ: John 3:16; Psalm 46:10

REFLECT: Your identity is wrapped up in who God knows you to be. You are loved by Jesus who died for you. Jesus loved the entire world so much, including you, He gave up His only Son to die for you. Because of this awesome reality, you can rest, be still, and not give in to the pressures that try to form you into something you're not.

RESPOND: Spend time meditating on God's great love for you. How can His love impact your ability to be still and rest in all areas of your life?

Thursday

READ: Philippians 2:13, Ephesians 5:18, 2 Corinthians 5:17

REFLECT: You are changed by the Spirit who lives in you. You are no longer your old self. You are a new creation. God is working in you through His Spirit to transform you into who He wants you to be. This truth can help to eliminate any pressures to perform and be busy.

RESPOND: Reflect on this second reality. How can the Spirit's transformation of your life lead you to live an uncluttered life?

Friday

READ: Philippians 2:13

REFLECT: Today's focus is a third truth: you are called by God who works through you. When we let God work in and through our lives, we crowd out "things" that aren't so important and we experience the rest that is necessary to live an uncluttered life.

RESPOND: Meditate on this truth. Is there anything in your life that is hindering God's work in your life? Ask God to reveal this to you and ask Him for the strength to remove any obstacles.
